

COMPENSATION BILL REPORTED BACK TO SENATE

Committee on Capital and Labor Recommends That Boynton Measure Pass as Amended

FARMING INTERESTS ARE SAFEGUARDED

Act Would Not Go Into Effect Until 1914—Seamen Not Mentioned

CALL BUREAU, SACRAMENTO HOTEL, Sacramento, April 21.

The senate committee on capital and labor tonight reported back Boynton's "workmen's compensation insurance and safety act" (S. B. 965) with the recommendation that it pass as amended.

The most important amendments are as follows:

"The title has been recast, so that it now clearly appears that the act covers only one subject, namely, industrial accidents. The act establishes a complete system of dealing with industrial accidents by providing compensation for such accidents, a state insurance fund to insure employers against liability for compensation and fixing safety requirements designed to prevent the happening of such accidents.

"To meet a possible constitutional objection all reference to the present industrial accident board is stricken out, so that the act is complete in itself."

The bill does not now include within its terms any employer engaged in farm, dairy, agricultural, viticultural or horticultural labor, in poultry raising or household domestic service.

No substantial change is made in the provisions establishing a state compensation insurance fund.

The original appropriation included in the bill was $422,150, of which $100,000 was for the purpose of establishing a surplus for the state compensation insurance fund and the balance for the administration of the act for a period of two years.

Under the proposed committee amendments the act will not go into effect until January 1, 1914.

The published statements that the administration of this act would necessitate an appropriation in excess of $1,000,000 a year, Senator Boynton says, are absolutely erroneous.

Another amendment provides that disobedience of an order of the commission is not punishable as a misdemeanor but such disobedience is only prima facie evidence of a violation of the terms of the act, and the question is left to the determination of a jury.

No reference is made in the bill to seamen, hence the shipping interests are exempt from its terms.

DAIRY REGULATION MEASURE PASSED

SACRAMENTO, April 21.—Despite a determined fight, led by Assemblyman Fish of Pasadena, Assemblyman Guiberson's bill providing for new standards of milk production and dairy regulation was passed today by the lower house by a vote of 50 to 17.

A companion bill providing the machinery for enforcement of the act under the authority of the state dairy bureau was passed with but one dissenting vote.

The bills were drawn up by the state dairymen's association, created by the state's associations with which Guiberson, who represents Kings county, is closely affiliated. A new standard of milk to be for the "grade A" higher in butter fat than the present law demands, is established by the bill.

Milk to be sold under "grade B" conforms to the standard established by the present law.

The bill Assemblyman Guiberson stated, in answer to objections on the floor, would not prevent cities desiring higher standards from enforcing them.

Assemblyman Benedict's bill creating a state board of administration, to take over the management of the local boards the management of the state hospitals and other institutions, excepting penitentiaries, was passed by a vote of 63 to 17.

Assemblyman Canepa's bill calling a state bond election for $1,000,000 for the erection of a state office building in the San Francisco civic center was passed, 59 to 8.

SAN DIEGO FAIR BILL APPROVED

SACRAMENTO, April 21.—An appropriation of $200,000 to complete the construction of a California state building at the Panama-California exposition at San Diego in 1915 was approved by the senate this morning and the bill, which previously was passed by the lower house, will go to the governor for his signature.

The total cost of the building will be $250,000, of which $50,000 was appropriated two years ago.

Other appropriation bills sent to the governor today, as a result of favorable action by the senate, include the following:

By Moore, providing $25,000 to pay a third of the cost of a bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma, Ariz. The appropriation is contingent upon the government and the state of Arizona, each providing an equal amount.

By Bonnett and Hayes, providing $50,000 to erect the cost of new buildings at Lick observatory, and to replace property destroyed by the earthquake of July, 1911.

By Young, providing the permanent income of the University of California at $100,000.

The senate passed without opposition the Tyrrell weight and measure act, establishing a standard of weights and measures and providing for their regulation.

With only three dissenting votes, the senate passed the Butler bill this morning prohibiting the sale of liquor within a mile and a half of any university in the state, excepting the University of California at Berkeley, where the limit remains one mile.

The principal effect of the bill, provided it is approved by the assembly and signed, will be to drive 13 saloons from the town of Santa Clara. Senators Bryant, Regan and Finn voted against it.

DOUGLAS SAVED FROM THE FIRE

Chicago Historical Society Learns That Lincoln's Opponent Came Near Death

CHICAGO, April 21.—How Stephen A. Douglas, the famous political opponent of Abraham Lincoln, the centenary of whose birth will be celebrated Wednesday, was saved from a fiery death on the day of his birth was made public for the first time today in a letter received by the Chicago Historical society.

The letter was written by Horatio L. Wait, master in chancery, who was a personal friend of the "Little Giant" in the sixties. John Conant, one of Wait's ancestors, who lived next door to the Douglas home in Brandon, Vt., is the man who saved the future statesman's life.

"The morning Douglas was born," the letter sets forth, "John Conant went to the Douglas home, and as he entered the room Douglas's father was sitting in an armchair before an open fireplace with the infant in his arms. Just as Conant entered, the father died suddenly of apoplexy, the infant rolled down into the fireplace and Conant snatched him from the flames."

Confirmation of the story has been received from relatives of Douglas.

SHORT AND UGLY WORD HURLED AT OFFICIAL

Bank Cashier and County Clerk Have Duel of Words in Supervisors' Meeting

(Special Dispatch to The Call) REDWOOD CITY, April 21.—"You're a liar," shouted L. P. Behrens, cashier of the First National bank of Redwood City at County Clerk Joseph H. Nash today during a heated argument before a meeting of the board of supervisors of San Mateo.

"You're another, and a bigger one," replied Nash, springing to his feet and advancing toward the bank official. Others stepped between the men and order was restored when Chairman W. H. Brown threatened to take extreme measures.

Behrens had appeared before the supervisors to find out why claims assigned to his bank had disappeared from the county clerk's office and never had been passed. The county official blamed the supervisors and the banker said: "Well, anyway, you should be more careful."

"Well," snapped Nash, "I never had to have the grand jury tell me what to do," referring to the indictment of the banker three years ago. "Before I ordered you to keep from behind the counter of my office I caught you taking claims from the files."

This was where Mr. Behrens used the short and ugly word.

BILL FOR KNOX'S EXPENSES LOST

Measure Appropriating $1,300 Turned Down on Recommendation of Fair Commission

CALL BUREAU, SACRAMENTO HOTEL, Sacramento, April 21.

The bill providing for the expenses of the visit of P. C. Knox, former secretary of state, to the Pacific coast, ostensibly to boost the Panama-Pacific exposition, has been turned down on the recommendation of the exposition commission. The bill calls for more than $1,300 for transportation, and the commission does not see that it is fair to put the expense on California.

Governor Johnson is quoted as saying that he believed that the state had no reason to stand for a bill that incurred evidently for political purposes during the Taft campaign.

The governor thinks that the Knox banquet at the time it was given was merely to help Mr. Taft's candidacy.

DEMOCRATS YIELD TO A DEMAND FOR TARIFF HEARINGS

Western Senators May Give Arguments Against Free Wool and Free Sugar

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Democratic forces in charge of the tariff revision in the senate, slightly yielded today to the demands for hearings upon tariff schedules. In addition to the permission given all interested parties to file further statements with the finance committee, Senator Simmons conceded today to a gathering of western senators the right to appear and state their arguments against the free wool and free sugar provisions that have been agreed to by the democrats of the house.

A full meeting of the senate finance committee is to be held tomorrow. Republican senators will renew their demand that general open hearings be given. The attitude of the majority of the democratic members of the committee is against this, however.

The Underwood tariff bill, as finally approved and revised by the caucus of the house today by Representative Underwood and referred back to the ways and means committee. Tomorrow it will reappear with a favorable report from the democrats on the committee and with a dissenting report from the republican committee members.

HAVE GIVEN UP HOPE

The senate democratic leaders have given up hope of having the bill brought into the senate in the form of separate schedules. The hearing to be granted to the senators from Rocky Mountain and Pacific coast states upon the wool and sugar issues, is expected to develop the full strength of the opposition to the bill, and to give the finance committee definite information as to whether it will be necessary to restore any of the duty on either of these schedules.

According to information tonight, the Louisiana, Kansas and Nebraska anti-free sugar forces had not been included in the invitation given for the finance committee hearing.

Some of the western senators will present their arguments against free sugar and free wool Wednesday. They have not indicated how much time they expect to occupy.

The bill will be expedited through the house by limitation of debate. The house by limitation of debate. The house by limitation of debate.

Representative Payne of New York, as ranking minority member of the committee, introduced today his bill of 1911 to create a tariff board, changed so as to provide for a tariff "commission" of five members, to be appointed by the president, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, and clothed with authority to negotiate trade agreements with foreign nations.

MRS. BREWER ON STAND DENIES OUTSIDE WORK

Witness in Jordan Case Testifies Auto Lists Were Compiled Through Carbon Copies

CALL BUREAU, SACRAMENTO HOTEL, Sacramento, April 21.

Mrs. Anita Brewer was recalled to the stand this afternoon by Theodore Roche, who is representing the joint legislative committee in the investigation of the office of Frank C. Jordan, secretary of state. Mrs. Brewer was non-committal and gave a vague idea of what records she had kept that might tend to show that she did work for the auto list customers on the stand.

John Johnston, who says he is a deputy sheriff, testified to meeting Dan Miller and paying him money for a position in Jordan's office. Johnston said that he had never had any dealings with the secretary of state.

Mrs. Brewer, Attorney Roche attempted to show, had sent out official records in the hours that she was supposed to be doing work for the state. Mrs. Brewer tried to explain that she had given out the records only when it was possible for her to duplicate them when they were required for other purposes. She had placed carbon copies in her typewriter when she was taking down lists for the controller's office.

Robson Bell, who was formerly with Secretary of State Curry, was called upon to testify to his efforts to get lists from clerks in the secretary's office and said that he was finally obliged to abandon his work.

Mrs. Brewer remained until late tonight as a witness. She fell back on what she termed her legal rights and the committee was unable to get from her any evidence that had not already been adduced before the board of control.

The prosecution says evidence will be introduced showing Mrs. Brewer turned over to Jordan a large part of her collections from the lists she sold. The committee will endeavor to show that checks drawn by Mrs. Brewer were paid to Jordan in excess of any amount she is said to have lent him.
